10 of 10 review helpful Astounding book By AK Hard for me to recall the last time I read a book of poems in which each and every poem felt singular and essential By singular I mean that each poem has a take all its own on the luminously complex experience of being alive And by essential I mean necessary for the collection its flow and meaning as well as for the reader lucky enough to experience these poems Wise a A dazzling new book by a writer with perhaps the most capacious command of the Jewish poetic tradition of any poet now writing in English Religion and Literature Peter Cole has been called an inspired writer The Nation and Idquo one of the handful of authentic poets of his own American generation rdquo Harold Bloom In this his fourth book of poems he presents a ramifying vision of human linkage At the heart of the From Booklist Cole The Poetry of the Kabbalah 2012 is an esteemed and prolific translator shy concentrating on Hebrew literature notably poetry from medieval Spain and the recipient of many honors includin
