Royal Dance: The Lion and The Butterfly - Book One:

1 of 1 review helpful Very inspirational By Debbie Fry The Lion and the Butterfly vividly portrays the life of a young Jewish girl during the days of Jesus ministry in Jerusalem Linda intricately weaves historical facts into the girl's family struggles which make the story come alive and grab the reader's heart and soul as the young girl is torn away from a loving father and wrestles with a deep dark secret that no one Jerusha's father dotes on her and calls her royalty a lioness who will one day dance before his King Jerusha adores her father but she cannot tell him her darkest secret Instead of dancing like other Jewish girls Jerusha sits alone plagued by guilt for a crime she did not commit Who will believe her story against the word of the most respected religious leader in Jerusalem Jerusha's fears are amplified and her nightmares realized when her Jewish mother forces her
