from the novel by Chaim Potok directed by Moira Blumenthal starring Robert Fridjhon My Name Is Asher Lev:

2 of 2 review helpful Truly Excellent Book By Larissa I loved this book It was raw full of emotion and explored a culture that's rarely in fiction As a Reform Jew Asher's Hasidic Judaism was both familiar and unfamiliar to me and I really enjoyed learning about it I also learned an awful lot about art and Russian Jewish culture It's a novel without a definite resolution but a happy ending would feel inauthentic "A novel of finely articulated tragic power Little short of a work of genius" The New York Times Book Review "Asher Lev is a Ladover Hasid who keeps kosher prays three times a day and believes in the Ribbono Shel Olom the Master of the Universe Asher Lev is an artist who is compulsively driven to render the world he sees and feels even when it leads him to blasphemy In this stirring and often visionary novel Chai "A novel of finely articulated tragic power Little short of a work of genius" The New York Times Book "A novel of finely articulated tragic power Little short of a work of genius" The Wall Street Journal
