journals books and primary sources Arguing with the Storm: Stories by Yiddish Women Writers (Jewish Women Writers):

From the shtetl to the New World from failed revolutions in tsarist Russia to the Holocaust these Yiddish tales illuminate a lost world from a woman's distinctive perspective For decades stories by Yiddish women writers were available only to those who spoke the "mother tongue" of Eastern European Jews This translation brings some of the "lost" women writers of the golden age of Yiddish to English speaking readers
