1 of 1 review helpful Fun light reading By Bingles The narrator protagonist is a well thought out character He s snarky and funny and matter of fact I liked him instantly and his cereal preoccupied mommy He carries the story well The steamy parts somewhere between half and two thirds of the book are quite The mushy parts are just brimming over with warm fuzzies This is refreshing to me to have romance witho Did M aring rten Larsson want to be a vamp Not so much He wanted it as much as he asked to have a sissy circle over the aring in his name He just woke up dead one day with a piece of paper that said Dude you re a vampire Drink some blood Don t sustan Luckily another vampire finds M aring rten and agrees to teach him how to live well not live exactly as a vampire And so M aring rten goes to Vamp Camp where he has to survive without getting staked or b About the Author WYNN WAGNER takes this tale of gay vampires to new heights This is his second novel He has written numerous other non fiction books on religion and spirituality
