Dreaming of Safed:

Idquo The uniqueness of Angelina Muniz Huberman's historical novel lies in its combination of poetic prose, apparent simplicity and a happy ending. Within the structure of the archetypal journey of the hero, a Jewish teenager in sixteenth-century Spain manages to avoid the Inquisition by joining a perilous Christian pilgrimage to the Holy Land. He is assisted by a magical muleteer who appears and disappears periodically in different guises until the protagonist. About the Author: Angelina Muniz Huberman is one of Mexico's best writers and she has published more than forty-five books of fiction, poetry and essays in recent decades. Her work has been recognized with more than a dozen international prizes.
